

Professional Portfolio & Curriculum Vitae of Prof. Vijay K. Agrawal

Prof. Vijay K. Agrawal, Vice Chancellor in RKDF University Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh is former Professor and Head, Department of Chemistry in APS University, Rewa. He superannuated on 30th June 2022 as Head of the Department for third Term. He is former Director of the National Institute of Technical Teachers' Training & Research (NITTTR) in Bhopal, India. He is known among literary persons as an Author, Columnist, Critic, contemporary Hindi Poet He is Working President of Madhya Pradesh Hindi Sahitya Sammelan, Bhopal.

He has a rich experience in teaching and research as well as education and training for human resources development. He has published extensively (about 190 refereed research publications in international/National journals) in various area. Over 45 doctoral researchers have been guided by him, all of them now occupying leading positions in academia, R&D, and industry in India and abroad.

His research publications have received citations during the last 35 years and he is one among the top-cited chemists in the country. He has successfully completed many research projects, written books, contributed a number of chapters in various books and published papers in journals of repute. He also hosted several National and International Conferences, discussions and chaired Academic sessions. In addition, has undertaken many novel initiatives including collaboration with international organizations such as CPSC, Manila, and Life Academy of Science, Sweden for strengthening technical education system in the western region. He has travelled abroad and visited various institutions of higher and technical education. He has held almost all the administrative positions of University including EC member, Dean Faculty, Member Academic Council, Planning Evaluation Board, Chairman Board of Studies, IQUAC NAAC etc.

